

SPAIN – CATALONIA

8-day / 7-night centre-based group guided walking tour on the Costa Brava

In the north-east of Spain lies the proud and interesting region of Catalonia. Home to the Gaudi city Barcelona, Salvador Dali, and human towers called Castells, Catalonia is rich with natural and cultural attractions. The province of Girona extends from the Pyrenees to the Mediterranean Sea and includes the coastal region of Costa Brava – wild coastline dotted with whitewashed villages. On this walking holiday we explore the dramatic Cap de Creus coastline, and visit pretty villages including El Port de la Selva and Cadaques. We also walk in the La Garrotxa region, with over 40 extinct volcanoes, the lava flows of which have sculpted the rolling countryside.

From our base in Roses, we have access to fantastic coastal walking along the famous Sentier du Littoral and we are not far from Cadaques, where we can soak up the legacy of Salvador Dali. In the afternoons we come back to our 4-star hotel on the waterfront and in the evenings our 3-course dinners feature Catalan cuisine.

Suggested itinerary: This suggested program will give you an idea for the walks offered on this holiday however this provisional itinerary is subject to change. The final walk selection each day rests with your walk leaders

Day 1: Arrival day. Plan to arrive at the hotel mid-afternoon. We can arrange transfers from Barcelona airport (at set times and at extra cost). After dinner the walks leaders will brief you on the week ahead.

Day 2: The Cami de Ronda. We follow the Cami de Ronda, the coastal that is gradually being restored and connected with the French border, with its spectacular views, passing secluded coves and headlands. The easier walk follows the beaches and lighthouse back to Roses. Alternatively, take the challenging walk inland over the Coll d'en Fragam past megalithic dolmen and menhirs and thence back to Roses.

Day 3: Cap de Creus & Cadaques. We travel to the Cap de Creus headland – the most westerly point of the Iberian Peninsula where the Pyrenees sweep down to the sea. We walk a stretch of the coastal path, passing striking rock formations sculpted by wind and water which inspired Salvador Dali's Surrealist landscapes. We also explore Port Lligat, Dali's former home and finish in Cadaques with its characterful blue and white buildings.

Day 4: Sant Pere de Rodes. These walks focus on the monastery of San Pere de Rodes, sitting at a height of 500m above sea level with stunning views down over the North Coast. In the 10th Century the monastery amassed enormous wealth, owning much land from Barcelona to the French border. The easier walk should allow time to visit the monastery. Both routes walk to the unspoiled villages on the edge of the Empordà Plain.

Day 5: Free day. No walks are organised. There are many choices of activities for your free day: have a spa treatment at the hotel's wellness centre, ride the tourist train around Roses or to Cap de Creus, take an excursion into the bay on a glass-bottomed boat, or travel by bus to Figueres to visit the Dali Museum.

Day 6: La Garrotxa. We travel inland from Alt Empordà to the neighbouring 'county' of La Garrotxa and another of Catalonia's Natural Parks – the Garrotxa Volcanic Zone. The volcanoes last erupted about 11,000 years ago and are now covered with vegetation and are known as 'green volcanoes'. We explore several of these volcanoes and walk through the distinctive beech forests of the region. On our return to Roses we stop and look around Besalu – a beautiful medieval town with cobbled streets, fantastic architecture and a superb old bridge.

Day 7: Cadaques to Port de la Selva. Our walks take us into the wild interior of the Cap de Creus Natural Park. From Cadaques we walk a portion of the GR92 long distance footpath, through areas now returned to nature but where we see old drystone wall terracing, evidence of the cultivation of vines in this area, brought to an end in the late 19th Century by phylloxera. We walk to Port de la Selva, an attractive fishing and seaside resort.

Day 8: Departure day. Tour ends after breakfast. Transfer to Barcelona airport is available (at extra cost).
