

SPAIN: PICOS DE EUROPA - THE HIGH PEAKS OF GREEN SPAIN

8-day / 7-night SELF-GUIDED inn-to-inn walk

GREAT VALUE

The emerald green Picos de Europa, the Peaks of Europe, is doubtless the most impressive mountain range in all of Spain. They were the first glimpse of Europe for countless ships returning from the New World. These jewels of northern Spain emerge dramatically from the coastal landscape as a natural frontier between the green north coast and the more arid Castilla. The heart of the Picos is made up of three huge and distinctive limestone massifs, not easily crossed by car or on foot.

An 8-day trip on the north side of the range, through the green province of Asturias, this is designed to be an enjoyable and relaxing walking holiday, offering a variety of landscapes in the Eastern and Central Massifs. On many days you have a choice of easier or more difficult day walks, which include an ascent to the mountain hut at the foot of the famous Picu Urriellu.

Trip Highlights:

- an attractive mix of idyllic countryside, mysterious woods, wide glacier valleys and striking limestone rock formations, including the famous Picu Urriellu
- lodging in pleasant family-run hotels in authentic Spanish villages
- tasty regional food, with local ingredients brought straight from garden, kitchen, and alpine pastures
- delicious Cabrales blue cheese and sparkling Asturian apple cider
- a flexible program with many choices, also very suitable for families

Suggested itinerary:

Day 1 Arrive in Arenas de Cabrales

Plan to arrive mid-afternoon to settle into your comfortable hotel located in the centre of the village, with time to sample the local apple cider on the hotel terrace or to visit the Romanesque church of Santa Maria de Llas. Arenas has a good shopping centre for walking equipment and picnic provisions.

Day 2 Circular walk from Arenas walking @ 10km, 750m ascent / descent, 5.5 hours or 380m in 4 hours

Begin with a climb up to the summer meadows of Nava, situated 500m above the Cares River with excellent views of the Picos Range. This is a strenuous but very rewarding walk, especially in early summer when the meadows display a multitude of brightly coloured flowers. Alternative shorter walk at a lower elevation.

Day 3 From Arenas to Sotres de Cabrales walking @ 9km, 575m ascent, 250m descent, 4 hours

There is a short transfer to Tielve, one of the most authentic villages in this part of the Picos. Walk to Valfrú, where residents still produce the famous local blue cheese, Queso de Cabrales. Gradually ascend through a fairy-tale landscape of heather, old beech woods and streams to a pass at 1240m, then down to Sotres (1050m), one of the highest villages in the Picos de Europa. You stay 4 nights in Sotres with dinner included.

Day 4 Walk from Sotres through Andara Massif walking @ 13km, 550m ascent, 900m descent, 5 hours

A circular walk today through the Eastern Massif of the Picos in an area exploited by mining industries in the 19th Century. Discover a limestone landscape of sharp ridges, deep depressions and bottomless shafts. In some seasons you'll see bright alpine flora among the rocks, and there is a good chance of seeing chamois, vultures, and different types of eagles. There are several options to shorten or extend your walk.

Days 5-6 Several walks from Sotres walking @ 6 to 19km, 325m to 875m in ascent, 2.5 to 7 hours

Choose from among four walks from Sotres, depending on the weather or how you're feeling. To the Vega de Urriellu mountain refuge and back, reaching an elevation of 2000m at the foot of the imposing Picu Urriellu. Or, through meadows and woods of the neighbouring village of Tresviso, where the very rare Urugallo or local Capercaillie lives (this bird is responsible for the dispersal of seeds vital to the Picos environment). Or, up to 1650m through an interesting glacier valley, where sheep, horses and cattle are pastured, an ideal viewing point for European vultures. Alternatively a stroll along farming tracks nearer the hotel.

Day 7 From Sotres back to Arenas walking @ 12km, 335m ascent, 950m descent, 5.5 hours

Walk along farming tracks up to Pandebano Pass (at 1245m), leaving Sotres behind. Descend along an ancient footpath through natural meadows and low vegetation to Bulnes, a truly authentic mountain village accessible only on foot or by funicular railway. Ride the train down through a tunnel to Poncebos or extend the walk through an impressive gorge where vultures nest. Taxi transfer from Poncebos to your hotel in Arenas. If the weather is not the best or you wish to take it easy, you can take the transfer to Poncebos in the morning and walk into the famous Cares Gorge, then return to Arenas by public bus or taxi (at own cost).
