

ABEL TASMAN NATIONAL PARK PRICES & DATES

3 or 5-day easy to moderate wilderness guided walking or kayaking with quality lodge accommodation

The Abel Tasman National Park, in a gloriously sunny corner of New Zealand, comprises a landscape of native Beech and Podocarp rainforest, ancient fern-filled grottos, mountain streams cascading into clear pools, granite headlands fringing legendary golden beaches and crystal clear waters. This extraordinary Park provides habitats for a plethora of wildlife including forest and sea birds, dolphins and a breeding seal colony on Tonga Island.

With a year round mild climate, enjoy a walk through native forest or sea kayak the coast. Wander the golden sand beaches or paddle in a pristine clear water estuary. Come home to one of our private beachfront lodges for a gourmet meal, fine wine and good company. Stay out late, gazing at the stars, then retire to your own room, let the waves soothe you to sleep at the end of a day that can be as relaxing or adventurous as you like.

Guided Walking: This easy coastal walk along well-made trails takes you through native forests; giving views of sculptured beaches of golden sand and clear glistening bays full of sunshine and silence.
