Please read this carefully. It sets out your agreement with OUTDOOR TRAVEL PTY LTD, trading as Outdoor Travel, and with their tour operators, service providers and agents. It contains important terms designed to protect your interests and by signing the booking form it binds you and all the members of your party to these conditions. Outdoor Travel, its owners, officers & employees give notice that they act only as agent for the Tour Operator or Service Provider. You should also read the Tour Operator Booking Conditions and any other travel information in the brochure, flyer, website or in any detailed itinerary or trip dossier.

OUTDOOR TRAVEL'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Please Read This Carefully. It sets out your responsibilities and those of Outdoor Travel and the tour operator. Please read any terms and conditions and general information shown on the flyer/website, promotional material or on the price insert.

1) Our Responsibility: OUTDOOR TRAVEL, including the owners, officers and employees give notice that they act only as agents for the operators who arrange the services described in this brochure. Outdoor Travel does not itself provide carriage services, accommodation, transport or tours. Outdoor Travel acts as an agent for boat hire, accommodation providers, air, coach, shipping, rail and other transport providers, tour operators and other service and product providers (referred to as "service providers or tour operators"). All products and services provided by service providers are provided on those service providers' own terms and conditions, which may include limitations and exclusions of liability.

All bookings with Outdoor Travel and all tickets, vouchers, receipts, coupons, exchange orders and other like documents issued to the client, are subject to each service providers terms and conditions governing the provision of products and services to be provided by that service provider. Outdoor Travel shall not be liable for any acts, omissions or defaults whether negligent or otherwise, of any service provider or tour operator.

Outdoor Travel shall not be liable (whether in contract, tort or otherwise) for any injury, illness, death, loss, damage, expense, delay or inconvenience resulting directly or indirectly from circumstances outside of Outdoor Travel's control, including acts of nature, war, civil disturbances, strikes, floods, acts of government or authorities, breakdowns, accidents, disease, quarantine, terrorism, medical or customs regulations, and alterations, cancellations or delays concerning itineraries, timetables or accommodation.

2) Your Responsibilities: Active holidays can be hazardous if you behave foolishly so don't take risks! In the interests of safety, we ask you to undertake to follow the advice of the tour operator, guide or representative; comply with any local codes of conduct; and act sensibly and prudently at all times. By signing this booking form you agree to indemnify Outdoor Travel, its owners, officers and employees for all losses and / or damage arising from any act or default on your part or the part of a member of your party.

You also accept the responsibility to ensure your personal travel documents (ie full passport, visas, air tickets etc) are in order. Please check these with your travel agent or Outdoor Travel well before departure.

You agree that any film, photograph, sound, video or other recordings taken during the activity may be used at the complete discretion of Outdoor Travel or the operator without any prior approval.

3) Passport, Visa & Vaccinations: It is mandatory that you familiarise yourself with any visa and health requirements that may be applicable in the countries you are visiting.

You are responsible for all entry/exit health and any other documents required by laws, regulations, orders, demands or requirements of countries visited or transited. Please note that passport and visa requirements are not the responsibility of Outdoor Travel or that of your travel agent. We recommend that you be in possession of a passport valid for at least 6-months beyond your intended stay overseas.

4) Consular Advice: Official travel advice issued by the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade is available in Australia by calling 1300 555 135 or visiting the web site <http://www.dfat.gov.au>. We recommend that you review this information both prior to making your booking and prior to departure.

Once outside Australia you should contact the Australian consular office or embassy or their representative in each country for advice or information.

5). How To Book: Your booking comes into effect when Outdoor Travel accept from you or your travel agent a completed, signed booking form and payment of a $1750 per person per tour non-refundable deposit and issue a confirmation. Some tours require a higher non-refundable deposit to be paid and this is detailed in the individual tour information and will be made clear at the time of booking.

We highly recommend you take out travel insurance at time of making a booking. Further information in relation to your tour may be provided in the form of flyers or trip dossiers. Please contact us if you require copies of these documents or have any queries in relation to them. By submitting your booking form and paying your deposit you are deemed to have read, understood and accepted all the relevant tour information.

6) Final Balance Payment: Outdoor Travel's confirmation invoice shows the total holiday cost for the services to be provided and the due date for payment. The balance of the full tour price is payable 120 days prior to the scheduled date of departure (190 days for charters).

If payment of the balance of the tour price is not received by Outdoor Travel by the required time you will be taken as having cancelled the tour and cancellation charges in accordance with the Cancellation Conditions will apply.

Payment of the balance or the full tour price may be made by cheque, cash or Direct Deposit without surcharge. If payment of the balance or the full tour price is made by credit card, we will charge you the appropriate credit card surcharge.

Final balance is due for all trips 120 days prior to departure (190 days for charters). If a booking is made after the balance of the full tour price is payable, the booking is effected when we accept from you a completed booking form and payment of the full tour price.

Prices are based on Euros (€) which are converted to the appropriate Australian Dollars amount and are valid until 31 December 2020. All payments must be made in Australian Dollars. Outdoor Travel reserves the right to increase the tour cost at any time due to factors beyond its control, such as currency exchange rates or increases by tour operators or service providers. Once a booking is confirmed, price revisions may be applied by the Tour Operator.

7) Holiday insurance: It is a condition of booking this holiday that you and all your group members have adequate travel insurance. Ask Outdoor Travel or your travel agent for policy information.

8) Complaints: If you have a complaint whilst on holiday you must report it at the time to the tour operator, guide or accommodation provider to enable it to be put right. If you feel it is serious, you must also notify us at the time by telephone, email or fax. Written details of any complaint or claim should be provided to Outdoor Travel within 14 days of the completion of the tour arrangements

We cannot guarantee that the Operator will be able to accommodate all change requests. No changes permitted less than 120 days prior to departure.

Reductions in passenger numbers for charters are only accepted up to 120 days prior to departure. Increases in passenger numbers can be accepted after 120 days prior to departure at our discretion.

8. BROCHURE DETAILS

We aim to ensure that the information provided by Operators is accurately conveyed in brochures, on our website and other promotional literature or material produced and circulated by us. There may be small differences between the actual vessel/other services and its/their description, as the Operators are always seeking to improve services and facilities. Occasionally, problems mean that some facilities or services become unavailable or subject to restriction. Neither we nor the Operators can accept responsibility for any changes or closures to area, amenities or attractions mentioned in the brochure/website or advertised elsewhere.

9. SPECIAL REQUESTS

If you have any special requests you must advise us in detail on the form. Although we will endeavour to pass any reasonable requests on to the Operator, no guarantees can be given that any request will be met. Confirmation that a special request has been noted or passed on to the Operator, or the inclusion of the special request on your written confirmation or any other documentation, is not confirmation that the request will be met. Failure to meet any special request will not be a breach of contract.

Conditional bookings cannot be accepted ie: any booking which is specified to be conditional on the fulfilment of a particular request, unless specifically agreed by us in writing.

10. OUR RESPONSIBILITY

As agent for the Operator we cannot accept any liability for any act or omission on their part or of anyone representing, or employed by them and cannot accept any liability for any shortcomings or defects with or in any Vessel as they are within the sole control of the Operators.

Your contract with the Operator is subject to their terms and conditions, which may contain additional limitations to their liability. If you have any complaints regarding any services we provide (as opposed to any provided by the Operator), you must inform us immediately in writing and in any event within 30 days of the end of any Arrangements booked through us. We regret we cannot accept any liability if we are not so notified.

Our maximum liability to you if we are found to be at fault in relation to any service we provide (as opposed to any service provided by the Operator for whom we are not responsible) is limited to the commission we have earned or are due to earn in relation to the booking in question. We do not exclude or limit any liability for death or personal injury which arises as a result of our negligence.

11. COMMUNICATING WITH YOU

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we are the data controller of all personal data provided to us by customers and prospective customers. In order to process your booking we need to collect certain personal details from you, for example names and addresses of party members, credit/debit card or other payment details, special requirements such as those relating to any disability or medical condition which may affect any party member's holiday arrangements and any dietary restrictions which may disclose religious beliefs.

If we need any other personal details, we will tell you before we obtain them from you. We need to pass on your personal details to the companies and organisations who need to know them so that your booking and any travel-related services (if any) can be provided (for example the Operator, Service Provider, other suppliers or agents, your credit/debit card company or bank) or for verification of details relating to your booking and any travel-related services booked. Such individuals, companies and organisations may be outside the European Union. Data protection legislation in those countries may differ from that in the UK.

We also need to process and store your personal details for our own administration, market analyses and operation reviews, and may disclose information to organisations who act as "data processors" on our behalf for this purpose. Please see our privacy policy for full details, which is available on our website. We may disclose customers' names, contact details and booking preferences to any of our trading divisions or to any company within our group of companies, or any subsidiaries of such companies who offer goods or services which we feel may be of interest to you. We may also disclose your details to immigration or law enforcement authorities where we are required to do so.

Except where expressly permitted by the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), we will only deal with the personal details you give to us as set out above unless you agree otherwise. You are generally entitled to ask us (by letter, fax or e-mail) if and how we are processing your personal details. We are entitled to charge a fee in responding to such a request. We promise to respond to your request within 40 days of receiving this in writing and payment of the appropriate fee (if required by us). In certain limited circumstances we are entitled to refuse your request. We may also record or monitor telephone calls to and from us for staff or training purposes.

12. CONDITIONS OF THE OPERATORS

The services which make up your cruise are not provided by us and are provided by other companies, firms and/or individuals as listed below, and for whom we act as agents.
