

AUSTRIA – STUBAI ALPS BASED IN NEUSTIFT

8-day / 7-night one-hotel GUIDED walking tour with a choice of easy to challenging guided walks

This walking holiday in the heart of the Austrian Tyrol, amidst the 3,000-metre peaks of the Stubai Alps, offers Alpine walks at all levels. From the picture-postcard village of Neustift, choose gentle walks through the wildflowers, or challenge yourself traversing high ridges and ascending some of Stubai's 'seven summits' for breathtaking views of waterfalls, glaciers and soaring, snow-covered peaks. We make use of the valley's excellent transport network, using cable cars and gondolas to access some routes.

A typical European centre-based walking holiday offers a choice of up to two guided walks each day. You choose the walk that best suits your ability and fitness. Walks leaders make the final decision on which routes are offered; each evening they will brief you about the walks for the next day and answer questions you may have

Suggested itinerary (Routes are determined by the walk leaders each day and are subject to change):

Day 1: Arrival day

Transfers at a set time from Munich Airport can be pre-booked (at extra cost) or make your own way to the hotel in the mid-afternoon in plenty of time for an early dinner.

Day 2: Sunnenseit'n Weg

Both walks take in the newly constructed Sunnenseit'n Weg (Sunny Side Way), on the sunny side of the Stubai valley. The easier walk leaves directly from Neustift, climbing above the town and following along the Stubai valley. The harder walk takes the Schlick 2000 gondola to its mid-station and walks the 'treehouse' path to Vergor, then to the nature site of Gschmitz, with a viewing platform amongst larch trees and meadows. Both groups of walkers cross the newly built suspension bridge which offers panoramic views up and down the valley. Shortly after the bridge crossing we descend and return to Neustift.

Day 3: The Elfer - Neustift's 'house' mountain

A taste of the terrain and views we will be experiencing this week! We take a cable car from the village to the slopes of the Elfer then ascend to a high hut for coffee. The easier walk then follows a delightful balcony path through flower meadows and up to a col with superb views of the Stubai valley. The harder walk ascends, then traverses the top of the Elferspitze (one of the Stubai 'seven summits') through magnificent rock scenery, before descending to pick up the easier group's route, taking another pretty path back to the cable car.

Day 4: Under Serles:

Head down the valley to Mieders and walk under the slopes of 'King' Serles, another of Stubai's 'seven summits'. Take the cable car, then a good forest track to the impressive monastery of Maria Waldrast. After coffee, the easier walk is through alpine meadows and forestry on trails which help to explain the local ecology and geology before a return to the cable car. The harder walk continues to ascend across the rough slopes of Serles, with increasingly stunning views, until we reach the pass of the Serlesjochl. The return is back to the cable car, to descend sedately...or try the summer toboggan run.

Day 5: Free day

No walks are offered today. You may like to visit Innsbruck, with its beautiful Hapsburg palace and Baroque cathedral, its well-preserved medieval Altstadt, and Olympic ski jump. Or visit the Mutterberg Glacier and Ice Cave. Alternatively you may relax at the hotel or walk independently using the Stubai Card.

Day 6: Glaciers and Wild Water

We go towards the head of the valley to view the incredible transition from snowflakes to cascading waterfalls. The easier walk goes to a beautiful alpine meadow with a rustic hut dominated by a ring of crags and a waterfall, while the harder walk takes the Mutterberg cable car and ascends a rough mountain trail, with some short sections of fixed ropes, to the Peiljoch, a truly dramatic pass with amazing views. Both walks then follow the 'Wild Water Way' with its waterfalls and cataracts before taking the bus home.

Day 7: The Hidden Schlick Valley

These walks take us onto the mountains northwest of Neustift, to the beautiful Schlickeralm meadows or the airy summit of the Hoher Burgstall. The easier walk descends under towering crags and through flower-filled meadows on a new informative heritage trail – look for gentian, campion, silver thistles and alpine roses. The harder walk ascends the Höher Burgstall (2611m). From the top cable car station there is a steep ascent to a rocky pass with fine views. Then we continue to the summit with some easy scrambling over scree and via a short section of fixed ropes and wires, to the cross marking the highest point of Höher Burgstall, for 360° degree views (Hoher Burgstall was climber Sir Edmund Hillary's first Alpine summit).

Day 8: Tour ends

Tour arrangements end after breakfast. Transfers are available from the hotel to Munich airport (at extra cost) – ask for details.
