

ENGLAND & WALES – SHROPSHIRE HILLS & WELSH BORDERS

8-days / 7-nights one-hotel GUIDED walking tour centre-based at Church Stretton

The attractive small town of Church Stretton, friendly and welcoming to walkers, is an ideal base from which to explore the rolling Shropshire Hills, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, and the Welsh Borders. There are wonderful walks to the Long Mynd, Caer Caradoc and Ragleth Hill direct from Church Stretton, whilst travelling a little further afield enables a wider exploration of this scenic county, and this guided walking holiday offers a great range of walks in the Shropshire Hills and Welsh borderlands.

After the arrival of the railway, in the Victorian and Edwardian eras, Church Stretton grew and the area became known as ‘Little Switzerland’ due to the dramatic hills on both sides of the valley. Today the town retains the charm of a bygone era. Our accommodation is in a wonderful location just a few minutes’ walk from the lovely town centre.

Trip Grading: Moderate to longer distances, mostly on good paths, with sections over rough, rugged or steeper terrain; some walks will have sustained ascents and descents. Easier walks 9-15km with up to 480m of ascent, medium walks 11-15km with up to 600m of ascent, harder walks 16-21km with up to 740m of ascent in a day.

Suggested itinerary (daily routes are at the discretion of the walk leaders):

Day 1: Arrival day

Plan to arrive at your country house accommodation mid-afternoon. Ask about local transport or taxi options from Church Stretton or Shrewsbury railway stations.

Day 2: The Long Mynd & Pole Bank

The great plateau of the Long Mynd rises behind our country house and offers miles of outstanding walking. On these walks we take routes of varying length and ascent to head up from the Townbrook Valley through the heather-covered moorland of the Long Mynd to its summit, Pole Bank.

Day 3: Stokesay & Craven Arms

The village of Craven Arms, the peaceful Shropshire countryside and the 13th century fortified manor house Stokesay Castle are highlights of this day's walks. The medium and harder walks also visit the pretty little hamlet of Hopesay, with its 13th century church, and soak up the views from Hopesay Hill.

Day 4: Free day

No walks are organised today. You can relax at the hotel or explore the local area independently. Perhaps visit Ludlow with its medieval buildings and well-preserved castle, Michelin-starred restaurants and acclaimed local producers. Or see the many museums of Ironbridge Gorge, 'birthplace of the Industrial Revolution' where Abraham Darby first manufactured cast iron used to build the iron bridge across the River Severn. Or, play 18 holes at the quirky Church Stretton golf course, one of the highest in England.

Day 5: Stretton Hills

Stunning views in all directions, weather permitting, as we summit one or both of Hope Bowdler Hill and Ragleth Hill. Some walks also visit the charming village of Little Stretton, and the harder walk takes in the famous Battle Stones, much-photographed rocky outcrops on Willstone Hill.

Day 6: Ludlow & Mortimer Forest

Ludlow is one of England's loveliest market towns and we have time to explore the town after our walks finish. The easier walk follows a section of the Shropshire Way, whilst the other walks take in Mortimer Forest along the Mortimer Trail. The forest is a thousand hectares of densely planted trees and remnant royal deer parks and hunting grounds and is rich in wildlife, particularly birds of prey and smaller songbirds.

Day 7: Darnford Valley & Betchcott Hills

From various starting points we follow the tranquil Darnford Valley on this day's walks, and join the ancient Port Way over the Betchcott Hills. The heather-clad ridge of the Long Mynd dominates the skyline as we cross the ridge and descend towards Church Stretton via Haddon Hill and the golf course.

Day 8: Departure day

Tour ends after breakfast.
