

ENGLAND – DERBYSHIRE DALES IN THE PEAK DISTRICT

8-day / 7-night one-hotel GUIDED walking tour based at Dovedale in the heart of England

Wonderful and varied walking country is to be found in the very central Derbyshire Dales, in the Peak District National Park. Discover limestone caves, lush valleys and pastures and stone-built villages. The region is very rewarding for walkers, whether through Dove Dale, with its eye-opening rock formations, or along the ancient and modern trails, looking down across the Cheshire Plain and into Wales. Charming villages, pubs and tea shops and former industrial relics add to the landscape, including textile mills, canals and tin or slate mines.

Cost from: $2725 per person twin share Single supplement on request.

Suggested itinerary (routes are determined each day by walk leaders – subject to change):

Day 1: Arrival day

Arrive mid-afternoon and settle into your charming country house accommodation.

Day 2: Buxton

We take varying routes, all offering expansive views, to the beautiful spa town of Buxton. Some walkers will start at the former Cat & Fiddle Inn set high on the moors whilst others ascend to Shining Tor then follow the ridgeline via Cat's Tor and Windgather Rocks. From the ridge looking westwards we can see the Cheshire Plain towards the Mersey estuary.

Day 3: Ilam and the Manifold Valley

We walk above the Manifold Valley to Ilam Park and village, first ascending to Blore with its Norman church, taking in the views of the limestone plateau and Dove Dale, before descending to Ilam village, which has a grand hall and a number of alpine-style cottages. Longer routes take in parts of the Limestone Way and visit charming Calton as well. We end the day with a stroll through fields and along the valley back to the Peveril of the Peak.

Day 4: Free day

Free day without organised walks. Explore the area independently or relax at the hotel. Visit the show caves in nearby Castleton, tour stately Chatsworth House, or hire a bicycle to ride the Tissington Trail.

Day 5: The Derwent Valley

From Crich village an undulating walk through the Derbyshire countryside to Crich Stand, a memorial tower dedicated to the Sherwood Foresters Regiment of the British Army, which lost over 11,000 men in World War I. The tower stands here in Derbyshire within sight of Nottinghamshire, the two counties represented by the regiment. If time permits, we may climb to the top of the tower. Then an easier walk along the Cromford Canal towpath to Arkwright's Mill, the world's first water-powered cotton mill, which helped lay the foundations of the Industrial Revolution and is now a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Day 6: Dovedale

Descend Lin Dale to the famous Stepping Stones, then follow the River Dove upstream past the limestone pinnacles and formations of Dovedale Gorge. From here we may climb a path with many switchbacks to pastureland high above the gorge, then follow field tracks back to the country house. Or, walk through the rolling Derbyshire countryside to Milldale, Alsop-en-la-Dale and the estate village of Tissington, known for its well-dressings on Ascension Day (40 days after Easter).

Day 7: Upper Dove Valley & the Dragon's Back

The easier walk traverses below the jagged edges of the Dragon's Back, while the medium and harder walks gain substantially more elevation by climbing Dowel Dale and Hitter Hill. A highlight today is the remains of Pilsbury Castle, an 11th century motte and bailey fortress, which on a clear day allows for views back to the rocky spine of Chrome Hill. We finish our walk in the market town of Hartington, where we can sample local Stilton and Dovedale cheeses in the cheese shop.

Day 8: Departure day

Tour ends after breakfast.
