Suggested itinerary (Routes are determined by the walk leaders each day and are subject to change):

Day 1 Arrival day: Plan to arrive at the hotel in Verbania mid-afternoon.

Day 2 Belgirate to Stresa: Known locally as the chestnut route, we start in a small lakeside village south of Stresa. We take a boat trip across the lake to Belgirate then follow old mule trails, passing churches, small hamlets, and the gardens of Villa Pallavicino on our way to Stresa.

Day 3 Suna to Cavandone or Lake Mergozzo: Today we follow an ancient trail passing a chestnut wood and medieval tower, then climb further for impressive views of Lake Maggiore. At Cardavone, we'll see a 400-year-old yew tree. Option to walk from Verbania through woods and meadows to Mergozzo then take the Sentiero Azzuro (Blue Path), pausing at Montorfano for views of Lake Maggiore and the Toce River.

Day 4 Lake Como: After travelling to Como by coach, we'll join a boat and sail across to the quaint hamlet of Torno. We'll walk through the old village and up quaint alleyways, arriving at the wooded summit of Monte Piatto. Soak up surrounding panoramas of green hills and the glittering lake, before following a different trail back to Torno.

Day 5 Free day: No walks are planned for today. Relax by the hotel pool and have lunch in Stresa's lively square, take the train to Milan, or jump on a boat to visit the Borromean Islands. Perhaps even take a boat to Switzerland for the day then catch the train back.

Day 6 Lake Orta: We walk from Armeno through farms and meadows, cross a Roman bridge, then head down through parkland to Vacciago, once a rich retreat away from the lake. We descend to Legro and the lake with plenty of time to explore. Option to ascend to the Franciscan convent at Monte Mesma for a view over Lake Orta then circle the peak before descending to Orta San Giulio.

Day 7 Anzasca Valley: From the village of Piedimulera, which sits at the mouth of the Anzasca Valley looked over by Torre Ferreiro, we follow the course of the Anza River. Passing chestnut woods, fruit trees, and old watercourses, we'll see ancient settlements and traces of old trades. We'll finish in the hamlet of Castiglione before heading to the Walser village of Macunaga.

Day 8 Departure day: Tour ends after breakfast (set transfer to Milan Malpensa Airport available at extra cost).
