Suggested itinerary: Passau – Bratislava – Budapest – Vienna – Passau ***

Day 1: Passau – Engelhartszell

Plan to arrive in Passau, the “City of Three Rivers” in time to board your ship between 4.00pm and 5:00pm. Enjoy a welcome drink, your first dinner on board and an evening cruise to Engelhartszell.

Day 2: Engelhartszell – Aschach/Brandstatt

cycling @ 45km

The first cycling day starts in Engelhartszell from where we head towards the “Great Loop”, one of the most photographed and scenic sections of the Danube. We ride on the sealed, traffic-free Danube Cycle Path through many small villages and re-board the ship in Aschach/Brandstatt. From there we cruise overnight to Devin.

Day 3: Devin – Bratislava

cycling @ 45km

Cycling along what was once the “Iron Curtain”, we reach the imposing Imperial Palace of Hof with its beautifully terraced gardens and idyllic manor farm. We follow the cycle path with the Little Carpathians as the backdrop onto Bratislava. Here there is time simply relax onboard, to take a stroll or join the optional bus tour and city walk in the evening to discover the many hidden alleyways, squares, and shopping centres of this busy city.

Day 4: Budapest (Free day)

Optional sightseeing tour or cycling @ 24-55km

Open your cabin curtains to a panoramic view of the Danube and many of Budapest’s most famous tourist sites directly beside the river. Nearby, you’ll find the Margaretheninsel, which is excellent to explore by bike. The popular market hall, nicknamed “The Stomach of Budapest”, is full of hand-made Hungarian crafts and specialities and is well worth a visit. For the energetic we suggest a 55km round-trip ride to the island of Szentendre. In the evening you may like to visit the city’s historic Jewish Quarter.

Day 5: The Danube Bend – Esztergom

cycling @ 50km

The Danube Bend known as the “Hungarian Wachau” is one of most delightful and attractive parts of the river. Ride past Visegrad, with its famous fortress and the ruins of the former palace, then cycle via the baroque village of Vac, influenced by the architects of the Austrian Empress Maria Theresa, and on to Esztergom with its impressive basilica, Hungary’s largest Catholic Church.

Day 6: Vienna (Free day)

Optional sightseeing tour by bike or bus and evening waltz concert

Today is free to explore Vienna’s attractions with an optional city tour to see Hofburg, St. Stephens Cathedral, “Ringstraße” boulevard, Opera House, Burgtheater and Town Hall. Alternatively relax onboard and take in the sights from the river. In the evening you may like to take in an optional waltz and operetta concert.

Day 7: Wachau | Krems – Melk / Pöchlarn

cycling @ 37-45km

Great cycling through the small towns, apricot orchards, vineyards, castles, monasteries, and ruins of the Wachau valley. There are many inviting taverns to taste the local wines and beer. Walk through Durnstein's narrow alleys, where England's King Richard the Lionheart was imprisoned during medieval times. The Baroque Benedictine monastery of Melk is an architectural gem. We celebrate with a farewell gala dinner this evening.

Day 8: Tour ends in Passau

The ship arrives into Passau, with disembarkation around 11.00am. In case of delays, please do not plan any onward connections until well after 12.00 noon.

General Information: The suggested itinerary is indicative only and is subject to change without notice. Cruises are subject to water levels, navigation of locks and bridges, etc. All distances shown are approximate. The tour is subject to minimum numbers and status will be confirmed 4 weeks before departure – please ask for further details.

The ship cruises and has engine power at night, so if you are sensitive to noise, we recommend you bring earplugs, and choose a cabin on an upper deck. The ship has three decks: main, middle and upper. On the main deck, portholes are fixed shut, and engine noise is more noticeable than on the other decks.

Non-cycling passengers are welcome on these tours but remember whilst there may be activities planned for the evenings there are no sightseeing excursions included in the tour cost during the day. Optional guided sightseeing excursions, city tours or evening events can be booked during the week and paid for on-board.
